

Levy, a finalist on The Voice Kids

A young star within reach: Levy is set to rock this year's Autumn and Wine Festival!

He's just 13 years old and has already captured the nation's hearts: Levy, the acclaimed finalist from 'The Voice Kids', is coming to us!

With his captivating voice and his guitar, he's guaranteed to give you goosebumps.

His motto: Music is life! Whether it's soulful ballads or rousing pop songs – Levy knows better than anyone how to thrill his audience. And you can experience it live!

Make a note of the date now: Saturday, 20 September,
2.30–3.30 pm,
'Weindorf am Kuffenhaus' stage

But Levy has even more to offer! His second great talent is acting. This year, he'll be appearing on stage twice:

- At Übigau Castle in the musical 'Der Wanderer über dem Nebelmeer'
- At the Komödie Dresden as the young Caspar David Friedrich

A multi-talented performer who simply has to be seen live! Secure your place in the Weindorf and let Levy enchant you.

Be there when Levy rocks the stage!
