

Andy Snatch

- Deutschland

For over twenty years, Andy Snatch has been leading an exciting life on the roads of Europe. Soaked by the rain in Amsterdam, scorched by the sun in Seville, in the mud and on big stages, Andy has always shown his audience that passion is what drives him to look beautifully daft.

Yet Andy Snatch is very British, and he is an artist who reflects on life, people, situations and, most of all, himself

! He juggles with hot and sharp objects, constantly toying with his audience's attention, and defies the laws of gravity.

England's most charming street performer unpacks his slackline.

The most original juggling, the greatest cheek and the most dazzling charisma lead to a finale in which it won't just be Andy Snatch who's will have aching muscles the next day.
