

Herbert & Mimi "Home Alone"

- Österreich

Herbert & Mimi is a touching yet light-hearted story about the most unusual friendship one can imagine. Herbert, a lonely elderly gentleman whose life consists of fixed habits and quiet routines, one day meets Mimi – a lively, somewhat eccentric woman who seems to be his exact opposite.

What begins as a tentative first meeting develops into a thrilling adventure full of misunderstandings, minor disasters and powerful emotions. With plenty of humour and a good dose of heart, the play tells the story of how two people who couldn't be more different learn to understand one another – and in doing so discover that life only really comes alive when you share it with someone.

A heart-warming production for young and old alike, showing that friendship knows no age limits and that the most beautiful stories often begin where you least expect them.
